4th NATIONAL SEMINAR ON FUTURE TRENDS IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Anand Institute of Information Science managed by Shri Ram Krishna Seva Mandal organized 4th National Seminar on Future Trends in Information Technology, in association with Computer Society of India V. V. Nagar Chapter and AIIS CSI Student Branch on 21st March, 2015.

Prof. Bipin V. Mehta (Vice President & President Elect of Computer Society of India) was Chief Guest of the seminar, Prof. Omprakash Shrivastava (Chairman CSI-V. V. Nagar Chapter) , Prof. Darshan Choksi (Dept. Of Computer Science, Sardar Patel University) Prof. Bhushan Trivedi (GLS Institute of Computer Technology, Ahmadabad) were Guest of honour and Mr. Utpal Betai (Project Manager at LetsNurture. Ahmedabad) delivered an expert session.

Seminar was inaugurated by chief guest Prof. Bipin Mehta along with all guest of Honour. Welcome address was presented by the Director Dr. Chhaya Patel. SRKSM Hon. Secretary Mrs. Jyotsnaben Patel delivered her Presidential Remarks.

Prof. Mehta and Prof. Shrivastava highlighted the future trends in IT and pleaded for its opportunities in IT Sectors. Dr. D. B. Choksi delivered key note speech on Advance topics of Distributed Computing. Dr. Trivedi explained various issues related with information Security and Mr. Utpal Betai delivered session on Big Data and Cloud Computing.

The Seminar was attended by academicians, researchers and students.

Glimpse of Seminar